

BALDWIN COUNTY
APPLICATION FOR PRE-TRIAL RELEASE PROGRAM

If you are charged with a non-violent crime you are eligible to apply for the Pre-trial Release Program. Not everyone that applies for the Pre-trial Release Program will be accepted. However, if you are accepted into the program other than an administrative and monitoring fee you will be released on a signature bond with special conditions. During the time you are released from custody and placed in the Pre-trial Release Program, members of the Pre-trial Release staff will monitor your compliance with your bond order.

THE FACTS OF YOUR CASE ARE NOT TO BE DISCUSSED WITH PRE-TRIAL RELEASE STAFF— THEY CANNOT GIVE LEGAL ADVICE

All persons placed in the Pre-trial Release Program will be required to:

1. Hold a full-time job or be a full-time student
2. Pay an administrative and monitoring fee to the Pre-trial Release Program
3. Report to Pre-trial Release staff while on bond
4. Follow ALL conditions of bond ordered by the Court
5. Truthfully answer ALL questions asked by Pre-trial Release Program Staff
6. Provide all necessary releases for medical and other information
7. Submit to a background investigation

I hereby apply to be placed in the Pre-trial Release Program.
